Supplier Inspection Delegation

Flow-down of this T&C stipulates that the part number on this Purchase Order has not been rejected by CFC's customer nor CFC's internal inspection program for a period of the past 12 months. Therefore, CFC has identified this part number to be an approved part number on the CFC Supplier Delegation of Inspection program. Seller is to maintain responsibility for all requirements of their Purchase Orders with CFC but to also include a copy of this T&C with below table completed and included as part of the Seller's Certification Documents Package.

SUPPLIER HAS BEEN DELEGATED INSPECTION AUTHORITY FOR BELOW PART NUMBER PROVIDED UNDER CONTRACT WITH CENTURY FASTENERS CORP.
Supplier Name:
Part No.:
Purchase Order No.:

*Revocation of the Supplier Delegation of Inspection occurs when:

- Supplier notifies CFC of an escape for a part number on the Supplier Delegation of Inspection program.
- CFC's customer alerts CFC of a rejectable condition of a part on the Supplier Delegation of Inspection program.
- CFC's random sampling inspection of Supplier Delegation of Inspection program's parts reveals a nonconforming condition.

This T&C will be removed from future Purchase Orders if the part number is removed from the Supplier Delegation of Inspection program.

Seller is to maintain inspection documentation and make available to CFC upon request.
